

Grandparents' Day
Germantown Hills Elementary School
Friday, April 27, 2018

Dear Parent,

Grandparents are very special people in children's lives. Children feel a sense of pride and accomplishment when people in their extended family and community take an interest in their education. We are inviting grandparents of our 1st and 2nd grade students to our Grandparents' Day event on Friday, April 27th, from 9:00-10:30 a.m. Our invitation is intended for your child and his/her grandparents, step-grandparents, or a special "grandfriend". If you have questions about who may attend, please contact event co-coordinator, Trish Palacios, at 383-2727 or trishpalacios@gmail.com.

Please have grandparents park at Great Oaks Church (Rt. 116 and Lourdes Rd.) and use the bus shuttle service to arrive at school. Shuttle service will begin at 8:30 a.m. Due to our elementary school arrival, those with mobility issues may park or be dropped off by the JDS entrance after 8:30 a.m.

Schedule details for April 27th:

- ◇ 8:30 a.m. Shuttle service begins at Great Oaks Church.
- ◇ 9:00 a.m. Welcome and opening comments
Grandparents of 2nd graders will stay for refreshments.
Grandparents of 1st graders will enjoy activities in their grandchild's classroom.
- ◇ 9:45 a.m. Grandparents of 2nd graders will enjoy activities in their grandchild's classroom.
Grandparents of 1st graders will enjoy refreshments.
- ◇ 10:30 a.m. Thank you for coming! Shuttle service begins to return grandparents to Great Oaks Church.

If your child has a grandparent who cannot attend the event, please encourage participation by having the grandparent write a note to his/her grandchild, which will be given to the child on Grandparents' Day. Please mail the note directly to school at the following address:
